UAB

This International Seminar is intended for researchers and graduate students interested in Social theory and Social Network Dynamics. The aim of the Seminar is to gain a better understanding of both epistemological and methodological dimensions of longitudinal network data in order to contribute to Social Theory development.

The seminar includes presentations focused on theoretical issues from Michel Grossetti (Toulouse, CNRS) and Claire Bidart (Aix-en-Provence, CNRS), and applications to substantive case studies using SIENA.

Venue

The International Seminar will be held at the UAB [www.uab.es], organised jointly by the Department of Social and Cultural Anthropology and the Centre d'Estudis Sociològics sobre la Vida Quotidiana i el Treball (QUIT) - Departament of Sociology, Friday 10th of July 2009. The UAB is about 20 Kms away from Barcelona, but is it easy to get there by train.

Accommodation

Accommodation will be provided for invited scholars by the organisation at the University Residence within the campus. Also, there is a hotel within the campus if preferred: <http://www.serhscampushotel.com>
